Sauvignon Blanc, Waipapa Bay, 13% Vol. New Zealand

This delightful Sauvignon Blanc is made from grapes grown in the north eastern coastal region of Marlborough. It showcases the skill & passion of the producer with its intense aromas of gooseberry, grapefruit & passion fruit, beautifully balanced with crisp aromatic flavours and hints of citrus. Delicious with shellfish, chicken, grilled vegetable dishes & fresh green salads

Pinot Grigio, Aldegheri 12% Vol. Italy

The grape has a copper grey colour, while the wine is bright straw yellow. The “white” vinification process is therefore indispensable, as is the search for the ideal moment for harvesting and treating the grapes in order to capture their aromas of hay and toasted almonds. It expresses itself best in the mouth, broadening its bouquet and presenting a dry clean harmonious flavour.

Gavi Di Gavi, Marchesi Di Barolo, 12% Vol. Italy

Gavi di Gavi is an Italian white grape variety most famously used in the production of the crisp, lime-scented wines of Gavi. The variety is known for its bracingly high acidity and its ability to retain freshness, even when grown in hot environments. Apple, peach and honeydew flavours are commonly associated with Cortese wine, with lime, almond and light herbal or grassy aromas.
